XPEDITIONS FIGHT AT BECKWITH'S FARM FALSE ALARM - EXCURSION OF GENERAL MCLEERNAND AND STAFF-EGYPTIANS-COLLOGAN-SOUTHERN MISSOURI ITEMS IMPORTANT FROM PADUCALI-CAPTI RE OF 500

My etock in trade this evening is not very nuserons, neither very new, you having received matters were livelier than they had been for some time previous. Even up to the present date expeditions are moving and returning continually. but they have thus far proven of so little importance that I refrain from giving most of them Minnesota regiment at the Manassas fight. The foreging, is not generally known, and I am not wont to indulge in idle speculations concerning

The skirmish that occurred at Beckweth's farm, about twelve miles southwest of Bind's Point, on Bunday last, between a squad of twenty men under command of Lieut. Tufte and a body of rebel cavalry, one hundred strong, resulting in the loss of two killed, live wounded, and three missing on our side, and twelve killed and wounded on the part of the enemy le deserving of particular mention. The rebels first appeared at the outskirts of the timber in small force, and retreated into the woode upon the approach of our men, who pursued them. As soon as they had entered the woods, the whole robel force attacked them with vigor, our handful of men repulling their attack with an effect worthy of greater numbers but owing to their inferiority of force retreat wes ordered, but not until they had nflicted serious damage upon their overwhelming foe, the effect of the fire of the little band being such as to prevent their being followed up hy the enemy. One of our men, whose name I have been unable to learn, who had previously been etigmatised as a coward, here sought and most heroically succeeded in restoring his fair name. He had been noticed to fight with much valor during the action, and, upon Lieut. Tufts ordering a retreat, he wheeled his horse in the face of the enemy, took deliberate aim at the rehe; Captain, and brought him from his saddle. after which our force made good their retreat. Logan, has enlisted for him not only the affections and contidence of his cwn regiment but of the whole brigade to which he is attached, After the speaking was concluded, the party of excursionists partook of a sumptuous dinner and returned to this place at 8 o'clock Para A gentleman direct from Sedalia, Mo, arrived A gentleman direct from Sedalia, Mo., arrived here this evening and furnishes the following information concerning the movements of Fremont's and Price's armies:

Gen. Sigel was in the advance with 1,000 men and fourteen pieces of artillery, supported by a heavy force in the rear of enthicieut strength to overcome twice the number of troops reported under the command of Price.

Sigel left Warsaw on Thursday morning and is now reported close on the heels of I'rice. Ben McCullongh was reported last in Hickory county marching to form an intersection with Price who A woman by the name of Anderson came to Sedalia from Warsaw (40 miles) part of the way on foot and the halance on horseback (hareback) to report the movements of Price. She eave Price's army is very much demoralized and almost in a state of insubordination. Desertions occurred in great numbers, and the men were offering for want of choes. They had sufficient acon, but were obliged to forage for other proisione. Price at that time, last Monday, had rossed the Osage 40 miles from Warsaw near Careasville, and was still retreating. In company with the gentleman who brings this report was a man who had been employed on the overland mail route. He states that he was taken prisoner by Price at Warsaw, and, after eight days' captivity, escaped. He says there are many good Union men at present impressed in his (Price's) army who avowed their intention of deserting npon the first opportunity; and that they declare they will not fight. To-day there is nothing etirring here. Everything as quiet as the calm at sea.

Important from Padneah. Henen o'clock P. M .- The Herald's correspond dent has just arrived from Paducah with intelligence that the gunboat Connestogs arrived there this morning from the Tennessee river with two barges in tow containing 500 barrels of flour, captured about 30 miles up the river. The Connestogs went up as far as the Tennessee line and made a reconnoissance of the fort at that point. There was no tiring done by either by party. A deserter came aboard and reported that the reason the fort did not fire on them was in consequence of being minns of ammunition. The fort could easily have been captured, but the gunboat did not think it advisable to do so, as they had no garrison to leave there. The Tylor is laylng in the river at l'aducah, and the Connestoga has gone to Smithland. There are no appreheneions of an attack on Paducah. All is quiet

It is a singular fact that a large majority of the people of the United States are unacquainted with the great impostance of the same for which the soldiers of the Importance of the cause for which the soldlers of the Union are fighting. Let every man and woman throughout the United States carefully read and study the Constitution of the United States, they will become convinced of the holinese of our cause and of the wicked-less of those who are striving to overthrow this grand palladium of freedom.

We truly believe, that, had the reading of the Constitution been adopted as a daily lesson in every school throughout the United States, the dectrines of secession and States rights would never have attained the position of a political question; nor would the country have been

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1861. Strange relations bring forth strange events. l'erhaps the world never beheld a revolt so un. natural, so uncalled for, so altogether atrocions, hat which has desolated Virginia and Misand now threatens Kentucky. And the assument features of our intestine. thetic in the ostpooring of their syn. for the bleeding South, and loudly protes. that their gentle natures and tender bear. would never permit them to fight their own brethren and friends of the Cotton States. That strange transformation has come over them, that they should now be found in battle array against : 'teir own Kentucky friends and brothren; father arrayed against son and brother against brother, and on the part of those who deserte I the standard of their forelathers, slile watching for some advantage when they on the more safely execute their bloody purpost! And all for what?

An illustration may show for what. Suppose some trusted and favored friend of the British army, in the northern counties, should take offence at some l'arliamentary vote, and, lect an army of the disaffected, march upon Carlisle or York, and in their proud boasting threaten London itself, ander the plea that the ote of the House of Coramons did not truly express the will of the country, relving upon

The notice state of North Carolina has furnished thirty regiments uncurpassed by any troops in the world, and has neither thustared at other States or bragged of her own gallant generosity. It is unfortunate that a similar spirit has not been manifested in all parts of the Confederacy. The indulgence of an unnecessary vanity in any quarter, or even profounded pretensions, would never have induced Virginiane to present the unanewarable fact of the case to public view, did not reasonable self-respect composit them to do so. We all well knew that medesty and silence are the best heraftly of grand action, and would willingly leave the part taken by the State of Virginian in a memorable struggle to the justice of history. But a system of mean relification and misrepresentation of this State, created by some illbegotten individuals, has become so common, is doing so much mischi f among the ignorant, and is producing so much irritation and pain to ourselves, that it is quite impossible to bear it longer. Perhaps the most melancholy feature of this doubtless melancholy enough that Virginia has been reduced physically to the condition of "a desert", with the "sombre chance" of experiencing "a catastrophe" which the Laminer characterizes as "unknown to modern times", but enrely the state of opinion which perverts "these certain evils and this sombre chance" into grounds for a malignant energy at a Commouwealth that has chosen to remain true to the sacred obligations of her allegiance rather promptly attended to and unished within the might have caught all these fine follows. than voluntarily encounter each horrers under the black ensign of treason is more melancholy Peat, that General Sherman will attend to asstill. This security and the infamy" which are their lot, is suggested by the soundest policy, and its if he had seen fit to respect tamely the laws good effects will be felt in no locality more The Examiner's sneer proves that Virginia is "a desert" morally as well as physically. This proof, bowever, was scarcely needed. The world is and has long been persuaded that Virginia as a State is both dishonored and destroyed. But now, when Virginia, stung to proclaim her sufferings by the "mean vilification and misrepresentation" of the partners

Heapcartee Decament of the Commentant?
Louisitely, Kr., October 3, 1881. (
The following plan for organizing troops in Kentucky for service for "three years, or during the war," has been agreed on between the State Military Board and the Commanding General:
The Military Board will appeint, at the varione places where volunteers are offering, Mustering Officers, whi will muster in and receive volunteers as they are presented. The Board will elso supply to its agents funds for paying the expenses incurred, and for the supply of such articles of clubing and camp equipage as are necessary before uniforms are in-sued.

As soon as ten companies of a regiment are complete, they will be mustered into the service of the United States, and supplied with arms, accourtements, uniforms, and transportation to the place of service by the regular Quartermaster of the United States.

Also at points convenient to the Subsistence Departments, provisions will be issued to the companies during the process of formation.

Where persons have been authorized to raise regiments and may succeed in doing so, they will be commissioned as Colonel, but if this occasions delays the Captains of companies may form themselves into regiments of ten companies, assemble at a rendezvous, and submit their choice of Colonel, Lisutenant Colonel, and Mayor for commissions.

If they do not voluntarily form such organization, the commanding Ganeral will order them as independent companies to join together at convevient points, and there form them into regiments and battalious, appointing the necessary field officers.

A special despatch to the St. Louis Rapublican axis. From reliable parties who wincessed the light at Frederickton vesterday, I gather the following particulars: Colonel Conlin, with parts of the Tat, 3Gl, and 38th Illinois regiments, the 8th Wisconsin, Col. Baker's Indiana cavelly, and Major Schofield's battery reached Frederickton at 90 celock in the morning. At I celcek P. M. he was joined by the Ith. I th, and 30th Illinois, and 100 cavalry from Cape Girardsan. They then advanced in pursuit of the rebels under Jeff. Thompson and Col. Lowe, who had left the place 21 hours before, and were reported to be rapidly retreating southward, but about a mile from town they discovered the entire force of the enemy drawn up in line of hattle, partly lo the open field and partly in the adjoining woods, with 1 iron eighteen-pounders, well planted in their front. Major Schofie'd immediately opened fire, and at the fourth round silenced one of the rebel guns.

The gracement then become grantal and Preor Knos, Oct. 22.

The engagement then became general and lasted about 2 hours, but after the first half hear the woods, closely followed by both our infantry and cavalry. Before leaving the field the rebel Col. Lowe was shot in the head and instantly killed. Major Gavitt received five bullets while leading a charge, thirty yards in advance of his com-mand. Capt. Highman was killed in the same harge.

Dur loss is reported 5 killed and 5 mortally wounded and 20 slightly wounded. The enemy's loss is not accreained, but is supposed to be c n-derable.

At the last accounts the rebels were in full rerest with their baggage trains, and our troops rere in pursuit.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 22.

A General Order was issued immediately on receipt of intelligence of the death of Col. Baker, which contains the following.

"It is with great regret that the Commandarin-Chief has learned of the death of Col. Baker upon the field of battle.

"Although not a citizen of Pennsylvania, he has been selected by many of her sons as their commandar, and met his death while gallantly leading them into action. The same feeling which inspired the soldiers to regard no State lines when one common country was in langer, induced the Commander-in-Chief to recognize him, while living, as a Pannsylvania soldier, and impels him, now that he is dead, to bear the public testimony to his gallantry and worth.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET. OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL, MEDICADAY, OCt. 33, 1951. ;
There was nothing new to report in diamorial efficienterday, the demand for money being very small, mostfor renewals, which are generally granted at the usus bank rate. The supply of exchange is fully equal to the demand, the rates on the East being par buying and % @ cont. premium selling. New Orleans exchange is dull and quotations are nominal. In the general market we have but little change to note. The demand for flour is fair, but owing to the difficulty to finding transportation Fast the transactions are limited to supplying the waste of city bakers and retail grocers.
